Sustaining, Growing, and Expanding Gender Equality

Amandeep Kaur

Chief Executive Officer

As we prepare to celebrate the 24th Annual International Women's Day Gala on Friday, March 27, 2026, we are guided by the IWD 2026 theme, Give To Gain. This theme reflects what we see every day at Punjabi Community Health Services (PCHS): when we invest in women and girls, we build stronger, healthier, and more equitable communities. When women thrive, we all rise.

Our commitment to women's empowerment is rooted in our strategic pillars—Sustain, Grow, and Expand. We strive to sustain progress through culturally responsive and inclusive services; grow impact by supporting leadership, education, and economic opportunities; and expand equity by strengthening partnerships and amplifying women's voices across our communities.

For over two decades, these values have shaped our IWD celebrations. The Achievement Awards remain the heart of the Gala, honouring women whose leadership and courage inspire meaningful change. IWD is for everyone—a time to reflect, recommit, and come together to build a more inclusive future.

The success of the IWD Gala is truly a collective effort. We extend our sincere gratitude to our sponsors, partners, volunteers, planning committee, speakers, performers, honourees, and guests. Your generosity and solidarity make this celebration possible each year.

Warm regards,

Arshdeep Phangoora & Amandeep Kaur

24 Annual International Women's Day Gala

Honouring and Empowering Women | Supporting Community Programs

Every year, PCHS takes immense pride in organizing the International Women's Day (IWD) Gala to honour and celebrate our community's incredible and remarkable women. This inspiring event highlights women's diverse talents and achievements, while also serving as a fundraiser to support essential community programs.

What to Expect at the Gala

Keynote Speaker, Diverse Performances, Award Recognition: Honouring outstanding women for their contributions, Networking & Celebration and much more. This event would not be possible without the support of our sponsors, well-wishers, donors, and stakeholders. We thank each of you for your invaluable support and commitment to promoting this event.

How Your Support Makes a Difference

Proceeds from the IWD Gala directly support vital community programs:

Langar on Wheels (LOW) Established in 2011, Langar on Wheels provides culturally appropriate, nutritious meals to isolated and frail seniors who are unable to prepare food for themselves. Meals are delivered directly to their doorsteps six days a week, ensuring both nourishment and a sense of connection. By purchasing a ticket for IWD, you'll enjoy a memorable evening with dinner while also helping to feed a senior for an entire week.

Project Khushi: Spreading Joy, One Gift at a Time. Started in 2022, Project Khushi has served over 650 clients during the holiday season, providing essential items such as hygiene kits, winter clothing, socks, gloves, feminine and baby products, toys, and canned goods. This initiative brings the community together, fostering warmth and generosity during the holidays.

About PCHS

Punjabi Community Health Services (PCHS) is a not-for-profit, community-based organization serving diverse communities for over 35 years through culturally responsive services across health, social, and settlement sectors. PCHS is recognized for its Integrated Holistic Service Delivery Model, accredited by CARF and Imagine Canada, and committed to equity and inclusion.

Our Mission

To support and enhance the well-being of individuals, families, and communities using an inclusion, diversity, equity and accessibility framework (IDEA).

Our Vision

Our vision is to have healthy and thriving diverse communities.

What We Do

Addiction

The Sahara Addictions Program at PCHS empowers clients and families through holistic, culturally and linguistically appropriate support for substance use recovery.

Better Families

The Sahara Better Families Program provides support to children, youth, and families experiencing or affected by mental health issues, cultural conflict, violence, and substance use.

Geriatrics

The Sahara Geriatrics Program strives to empower, support, and educate seniors to improve their quality of life.

Mental Health

The Sahara Mental Health Program provides holistic support through case management and counselling for individuals and families experiencing mental illness.

Settlement

Settlement services support newcomers in integrating into Canadian society, serving newcomers, PRs, citizens, students, workers, and refugees. Services are free, confidential, and offered in multiple languages.

SHPP

The Sahara Health Promotion and Prevention (SHPP) program at PCHS is a community-based initiative that delivers culturally responsive health promotion, prevention, and community engagement.
