You must be asking this question –
How can labour market information be of use to me?

Well: if you are a job seeker, an employer, a researcher, a student, a parent or career counsellor, you'll find value in labour market information, because it will help you make the best decision in the following:

- Wage and salary data
- Labor demand and supply statistics
- Demographic information (where your best job opportunities lie)
- Who's hiring? Where are the Jobs?
- How to navigate hidden job market

Zoom link will be provided upon registering with Rekha
