

Employment Preparedness Program

- ❑ The Employment Preparedness Program assists newcomer job seekers from various backgrounds in their employment search. We believe securing meaningful employment and contributing to the Canadian economy are main components of an individual's overall well-being.
- ❑ The program provides clients with tools, skills and resources, and prepares them to find employment in their chosen profession in Canada.

Employment Services

- ❖ Educational webinars related to Employment in Canada
- ❖ One-on-one supportive counselling and assistance on making professional resumes and cover letter
- ❖ Assist/guide to prepare for a job interview
- ❖ Labour market information – geographically, industries, how to tap on the hidden job market, sharing job postings, connection to recruiters, and networking
- ❖ Referral to appropriate government programs, educational upgrading, credential validation with on-going support and coaching

Clients may self-refer or be referred to the program internally and externally

Currently programs are offered in-person and virtually.
Services are at NO COST to the clients
